

ART

India Art Summit, Pragati Maidan, August 22-24, 11 am-8 pm

The mega event of the year for Indian art lovers, along the lines of global art fairs like Art Basel and Freeze. It hosts a range of artworks by India's best artists, shown by 34 Indian and global galleries.

Exhibitors include Nature Morte, Palette Art, Sanskriti, Robi Dean Art, Gallery Espace, Cymroza, Apparao, Emami, Tao, Tasveer and Vadehra Gallery. A must-visit!

Tickets: Rs 200 per person

Recent Works, Epicentre, Gurgaon, August 24-27, 11 am-9 pm

Mohd Feroz studied under the famous artist Manjit Bawa and was hugely inspired by his own father Ibrahim, a banner painter in Delhi. Feroz's latest works focus on Delhi's deprived areas, and has haunting images of the elderly, rickshaw pullers, beggars and children.

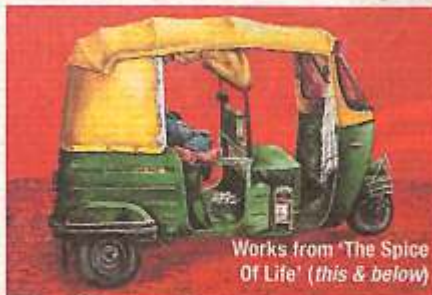

The Spice Of Life, Open Palm Court, IHC, on till August 26, 11 am-7 pm

An eclectic group show of paintings and bronze sculptures by Dolly Prasad, Rohit Sharma, Sangeeta Sharma, Sher Singh and Suchit Sahni, each depicting the various facets and colours of life.

Metropolis & The Self, Art Alive Gallery, on till August 31, 11 am-7 pm

A group exhibition displaying unusual flavours of the metro life experience, by Apurva Desai, C F John, Debraj Goswami, Pratul Dash, Murali Cheeroth, T M Aziz and Veer Munshi.

Wings Of Desire, Delhi Art Gallery, 11, Hauz Khas Village, on till September

Works from 'The Spice Of Life' (this & below)

5, 11 am-7 pm

P Khemraj, also known as the 'Renaissance Man of Indian art', showcases his mural-sized works, early canvases and delicate linear drawings. Full of youthful exuberance, his works confess his love for life.

Woman, 1 A, Hauz Khas Village, on till September 6, 11 am-7 pm

Lala Rama Nand's bold, rapturous brush strokes and drawings based on the feminine form as the central object are inspired by the very rhythmic gait of the Santhal women.

A work from 'Wings Of Desire'