Aakriti Art Gallery is proud to announce a special exhibition in honor of the late sculptor Shankar Ghosh, marking what would have been his 90th birthday. The exhibition, titled “Ethereal Forms: A Tribute to Shankar Ghosh,” will showcase a curated collection of Ghosh’s timeless sculptures, offering art enthusiasts a unique opportunity to immerse themselves in the profound artistic vision of this legendary sculptor.

Shankar Ghosh, a revered figure in the world of modern Indian sculpture, left an indelible mark on the art world with his ethereal designs and monumental forms. His sculptures, each a masterpiece in its own right, continue to captivate viewers with their aesthetic beauty and emotive power. Through his work, Ghosh transcended the boundaries of the material world, inviting audiences to engage in a dialogue with the ethereal realm of his imagination.

The exhibition will feature a selection of Ghosh’s most iconic sculptures, carefully curated to highlight the breadth and depth of his artistic oeuvre. The catalog includes notable pieces such as “Sitting Lady 3,” “Tribal Couple,” and the evocative “Parkour,” each representing Ghosh’s unique blend of form, movement, and emotion. These pieces are among the few remaining works held by the artist’s family, making this exhibition a rare and invaluable opportunity to experience Ghosh’s legacy.

Visitors will have the opportunity to witness first hand the transformative experience that Ghosh’s sculptures offer, as they transport viewers into a world of beauty, emotion, and contemplation. Join us as we pay tribute to the enduring legacy of Shankar Ghosh and celebrate the life and work of this visionary artist.
